Coffee Cost Increase

The prices of both our own roasted and green coffee will be going up by 10% from April 1st 2007. You should already have received a letter to this effect, but basically it is down to an increase in the cost of green coffee from the growers, combined with increase fuel and energy costs. We have absorbed these costs for some time, but now we have to unfortunately pass some of this cost on. This increase includes the Lavazza coffee range.

New Products

Twinings have introduced new White Tea in string and tag envelope tea bags just like the herbal infusions at £1.64 per box of 20. There is White Tea and also White Tea and Pomegranite available.

New stocks of a variety of small estate green coffee beans for anyone who roasts their own coffee, all available in 1kg bags and including estates like Yemen Mocca Matari, Sulotco Sulawesi and Java Blawan.

Individually wrapped chocolate teaspoons are a novel idea to serve with either hot chocolate, cappuccino or Mocha. 4 x 45 for £57.60. Chocolate lolly stirrers 4 x 25 for £32.00 in milk or dark chocolate, great for making drinking chocolate.

have produced a range of individually wrapped chocolates and biscuits to serve free with a cappuccino. They include individually wrapped chocolates (200 x 5g) £8 + VAT. Individually wrapped shortbread (200 x 5g) £8 + VAT and Individually Wrapped chocolate coated almonds (200 x 3.5g) £8.67 + VAT.

For something a little different, we have Lavazza Tandem, two different Mouses (chocolate and hazelnut) in squirt cans that are designed to be sprayed into one side of a two compartment plastic cup. In the other side you add your espresso or cappuccino.
